Guidelines for Authors

Deadline	The article must be available to us (re-magazine@ireb.org) on the given date.
Author's profile	The authors' profile should be around 350 characters including blanks and is completed by a portrait photo of the author. Please ensure that the photo has a minimum size of 500 pixel x 500 pixel and a minimum resolution of 72 dpi.
Article volume	Please send us not more than 8 pages (including images) as an editable text file (e.g. Word). In case numerous images form part of the article, 8 pages may be exceeded.
Elements of the article	The article itself must comprise: • the headline, • a sub-headline, • a teaser text (about 100 words) • the body text • headings within the body text The body text may include: • enumeration lists, • images (tables have to be formatted as images)
References	Any article that is not an opinion article must have bibliographic references. Bibliographic references must comply with the following characteristics: • They must be verifiable, reliable and recognized sources (e.g., authors of recognized prestige, research articles belonging to universities of recognized prestige or published in publications of recognized prestige). • References to personal works or those of related companies should not exceed 25%. • References should link explicitly to the respective part of the referred article (chapter, page, topic, etc.), to help the reader identify the relevant content. • References cannot belong to pages whose quality has not been verified or whose content may change (e.g., Wikipedia - this site has articles of excellent quality, but there is no guarantee that all articles are of quality).

Don'ts	The article may not be of an advertising character. Therefore, the author has to refrain from the promotion of tools, companies, trainings, etc.
Font	The font size of the text should be 11 point. For special emphasis on a piece of text italic or bold formatting can be used.
Image files	All images included in the article must be sent to us as separate files once your article is accepted. The resolution of the image file must be as follows: screenshots 72 dpi - preferably uncompressed PNG other image files 750 pixel (width) at 72 dpi - preferably PNG, high-quality JPG
Elements originating from other sources	If elements originating from other sources are part of the article, the author is responsible for requesting a written permission from the copyright owner for the reproduction.
Feedback from the editor	After the submission of your abstract/article the editor will give you a feedback within 10 working days for abstracts 20 working days for articles The editor might have suggestions for improvement. Please plan resources for the implementation of these suggestions. Submit the reworked abstract/article to the editor within 5 working days for abstracts 10 working days for articles If your abstract is accepted please submit the article within 20 working days.
Feedback from the final editing	If the editor did not have any suggestions for improvement of the article, you will receive a URL leading to the final editing of your article within periods mentioned above. This link is meant for proofreading and checking the graphics, which might also be layouted. Your feedback is requested within 5 working days.

Author's Agreement	You will have to sign an author's agreement with IREB GmbH where • you agree that you permit IREB GmbH to publish the article in a whole or in parts without any limits • you indemnify IREB GmbH from any liability resulting from the permission for the publication • you guarantee that the material is under your own copyright or that you have the permission to publish it.
Data Privacy	You will have to sign a Data Privacy and Processing Information in which you agree that IREB GmbH may forward your data to the editors who review your abstract/article.
Contact	If you have any questions, please contact us at re-magazine@ireb.org